

I have been an xm subscriber for 5 months now. I have to pay to listen to it and i do it by my own free choice. If local radio stations are loosing listeners than they should take the hint. It is also better because I live in a rural area and dont have good reception so leave well enough alone.